Thumbs Up

Breakfast for lunch, breakfast for dinner? You can do that here. Its breakfast all day. For me, I still enjoy a good ol' fashioned breakfast for breakfast. Bacon, eggs, grits, a hot cup of coffee and a glass of OJ. They serve all the classics and serve them well.

Serpas

This place blends southern cooking and low country fare with an open yet intimate atmosphere. Great place to stop by with friends or a date.

Oakland Cemetery

"Oakland cemetery is a beautiful, iconic, treasure of our city. In the Victorian style, its meant to be walked around in, and enjoyed. You can find some great history here, from the graves of countless civil war soldiers, to Margaret Mitchell and Maynard Jackson."

Edgewood Speakeasy

"You walk into a usual looking pizza place, past the pizza oven and the wooden tables. You're not expecting anything....but as you reach up to pull your favorite read from an oversize bookshelf in the back, you open a door to cocktails, boilermakers, and draft beer. Its dark, there's generally music, and silent black and white films are projected on the wall. This is a great spot to start or end your night. Gets packed in between though, to try it on either side of the evening."

Miso Izakaya

This place is listed as one of the 26 best places in the country for Ramen for a very good reason. Its warm, savory, noodly deliciousness is a perfect lunch spot to fill your belly, or warm up on a chilly day.

Irwin Street Market

"This has something for everybody in your group to unwind or recharge. Think college coffee shop, meets local bakery, meets ice cream. This is a great spot to relax on a couch with a book and recharge."

Living Walls

"If you were around last year, you could see dozens of artists from around the world to paint intricate murals on the walls of local businesses and restaurants. Now you can take tours that discuss the pieces, or just walk around and enjoy the international art right in there Old 4th Ward."

Church

"Church is one of my favorite bars in town. Its loud but not too loud. The people are interesting but not too crazy. If bars were porridge, and bears built bars, this one would be just right. There's ping pong, there's organ karaoke, there are unwitting drunks stumbling in their gleeful stupors in choir robes!"
